

NOMINATION FORM – SERVICE AND SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Pennsylvania Association for Gifted Education will present its first annual Service and Scholarship Award during our 2010 conference (April 22nd through April 24th) at the Four Points North by Sheraton Hotel in Mars, PA. See <http://www.penngifted.org/> or <http://PAGEgoes2Mars.blogspot.com> for conference details.

The Service and Scholarship Award is given to a student in grades 10-12 who has demonstrated excellence and leadership in the areas of both academics and service. To be considered for this award, the student's parents must be members of PAGE at the time of nomination and at the time the award is presented (April of 2010). This award is accompanied by a $500 check that the student must use to support an academic or service endeavor.

Nominations for the award should be made by a teacher or other school official, and should be supported by letters from teachers, community members and/or representatives of organizations with whom the student has worked. A minimum of two letters is required. At least one letter must attest to the student's excellence and leadership in academics, and at least one letter must support the student's contributions in the area of community service. Appropriate letters of commendation may be submitted, along with and press releases, articles in newspapers, or any other documentation will enhance the nomination.

The student should submit a brief summary (750 words or less) of his or her academic and service experiences, including a rationale for involvement and other motivating factors.
