

PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATION FOR GIFTED EDUCATION

Exploring New Worlds in Gifted Education

April 22-24, 2010

Four Points by Sheraton North -- Mars, PA

Featuring:

Dr. Karen Rogers

The University of St. Thomas

Dr. Mary (Landrum) Slade

James Madison University

Dr. Jean Peterson

Purdue University

Dr. Ann Shoplik and Pamela Piskurich

Carnegie Mellon University (C-MITES)

Andy Mahoney

Counselor of the Gifted

Dr. Victoria Damiani

Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Mary Ann Swiatek

Psychologist and Researcher

Linda Deal

Millersville University

Dr. Carol Frieze

Carnegie Mellon University School of Computer Science

Dr. Carla Mazefsky

Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh

...and YOU!

Session Topics Include:

Ability Grouping: Helpful or Harmful?

Animation and Game Programming for Kids

Best Practices for Meeting the Needs of All Gifted Learners

Bullying of and by Gifted Students

The Challenges of Parenting and Teaching Gifted Children

Cultivating Creative Minds and Forward Thinkers

Developing Mathematical Talent

Everything I Wish I'd Known about Gifted Education Before I Started Teaching

Expanding Gifted Pedagogy to All Students Without Sacrificing the Gifted

The GIEP: It's More Than Just Paperwork!

Gifted ABCs: An Overview of Gifted Education Terminology

Perfectionism in Gifted Students

Social and Emotional Concerns: Essential for Advocacy

Strategies for Successful Parent-Teacher Relationships

Teachers Who Make a Difference in Gifted Children's Lives

The Top Five Fundamentals of Gifted Education

Underachievement in Gifted Students

An Update on the Latest Research in Gifted Education

What You Need to Know about the New Chapter 16 Guidelines

...and many more!

Workshops --- Panels --- Exhibitors --- Networking --- Children's Program --- Prizes

www.penngifted.org

PAGEgoes2Mars@gmail.com