Dear Exhibitor,

The 2009 Pennsylvania Association for Gifted Education (PAGE) State Conference will be held at the Dolce Valley Forge Hotel, April 16-18, in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania. Approximately 500 educators and parents are expected to attend the conference. The conference will also include a one-day student program.

This year the featured speakers are:

- Bonnie Cramond, Ph.D., professor of education and former director of the Torrance Center for Creative Studies at the University of Georgia.
- Jim Delisle, Ph.D., former professor of Special Education at Kent State University, where he directed the undergraduate and graduate programs in gifted child education. Author of 14 books and more than 250 articles about the gifted.

This is an excellent opportunity for your company to exhibit and/or sell your products and services. Many of the conference attendees look forward to viewing and purchasing materials for their classrooms and children.

Tables are available in the Exhibit Area to sell and display your products. Tables cost $200.00 each. If you cannot attend the conference, you may still have your materials placed on a display table. The cost of display space (flyers only) is $25.00.

After reviewing the enclosed information, please let me know as soon as possible if you intend to be a part of the 2009 PAGE Conference. You will be listed in the program if we have your paid application no later than March 7, 2009.

Various options are available to promote your services. If you would like to take advantage of these opportunities and have your name listed in the program as hosting an event, please be sure to indicate this on the application form.

Please contact me if you have any questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

Elaine Armstrong
